CBIA Announces New Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs P. Anthony Thomas

Sacramento, CA – The California Building Industry Association (CBIA) announced that P. Anthony Thomas has joined the organization as Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs. Thomas brings extensive experience to this role, having previously served as a lobbyist for the California Independent Petroleum Association, Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, the California Forestry Association, the California League of Cities, and other organizations. Thomas most recently served as the Regional Director of Government Affairs, West Region for Cresco Labs.

“We are proud to welcome P. Anthony as CBIA’s new Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs,” said Dan Dunmoyer, President and CEO of CBIA. “With his extensive experience, P. Anthony will bolster CBIA’s advocacy for the home building industry and our Housing For All agenda.”

As Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs, Thomas will represent CBIA before the California state Legislature, Governor’s Office and state agencies.

About the California Building Industry Association

The California Building Industry Association is a statewide trade association based in Sacramento representing thousands of member companies including homebuilders, trade contractors, architects, engineers, designers, suppliers and industry professionals in the homebuilding, multi-family and mixed- use development markets. CBIA members build nearly 9 out of 10 new housing units built in California, including charity homes, legally defined as affordable housing, middle-class market-rate housing, and luxury homes.
