Exhibit at PCBC 2025

We are charting a new course for PCBC 2025! Exhibit with us as we transition to a focused, high-value event format. The new direction continues PCBC's legacy of innovation while bringing the building industry together with intention for purposeful connections and real business. In the new layout, exhibits will go beyond traditional booths to focus on interacting. Exhibits, keynotes, social activations, and new functions will all take place on the second level of Anaheim Convention Center North. The new format will keep everyone together to maximize opportunities and inclusiveness. When you exhibit at PCBC 2025, you will break away from the predictable to surprise and delight attendees.
